The creative and artistic coverage of trends in all areas makes the magazine a source of inspiration and a trailblazer in its field. It offers an editorial approach with surprising perspectives, representing a fusion of art and aesthetics with beauty, fashion, hair styling, accessories, products, design, craftsmanship, as well as people. TUSH is an influencer with a strong basis of visual intrigue and creative expertise all at a time when exclusiveness is becoming a rare commodity and uniqueness is in short supply. Always targeted, never missed - in print and online, TUSH has shown its distinctive face since 2005. Our mission: Enriching the landscape of beauty and fashion publications as an arena for the most creative photographers, hair and make-up artists, models, talents and creators of art.

TUSH's target group are people from the age of 20 interested in defining beauty beyond the apparent. The magazine's readers invest in an elevated lifestyle and thought-provoking context showing that true beauty also thrives underneath the surface. Interest in beauty, fashion, consummation, the cosmopolitan, as well as art and culture is taken to the next level. TUSH customers are intelligent, well-read, creative and most importantly, active members of the international beauty, fashion and design community eager to reinvent themselves regularly. They spend considerable amounts of time in galleries, shops, and bars to cultivate their avant-garde character and explore new creative outlets. TUSH readers are influencers themselves and create or spread trends, thus quick access to online media helps stay on top of the current news, events or product launches.
